

COMHAIRLE CHONTAE LAOISE LAOIS COUNTY COUNCIL

CASUAL TRADING BYE LAWS STRADBALLY 2022

Laois County Council in exercise of its powers under Section 6 of the Casual Trading Act, 1995, as amended, and SI No. 191 of 2004-Casual Trading Act 1995-(Section 2 (3)) Regulations 2004 and SI No. 308 of 2018-European Union (Casual Trading Act 1995) Regulations 2018, hereby make the following Bye Laws in relation to the control, designation, regulation, supervision and administration of Casual Trading in the administrative area of Stradbally, Co. Laois.

- 1) These Bye Laws may be cited as the Stradbally Casual Trading Bye Laws 2022.
- 2) These Bye Laws come into effect 17th February 2023.

DEFINITIONS

1. In these Bye Laws, the following definitions shall apply: -

“The Act” means the Casual Trading Act, 1995, as amended.

“The Council” means the Council of the County of Laois.

“Authorised Officer” means any person appointed by Laois County Council under Section 10 of the Act to be an authorised officer.

“Casual Trader” means any person or his nominated agent, authorised to carry out casual trading pursuant to the Casual Trading Act, 1995 and these Bye Laws.

“Casual Trading Licence” means licence under Section 4 of The Casual Trading Act, 1995 and for the time being in force.

“Casual Trading Area” means the land standing designated in these Bye Laws made under Section 6 of the Act as an area where casual trading may be carried on.

“Casual Trading” means selling of goods at a place (including a public road) to which the public have access as a right of any other place that is a Casual Trading Area as defined by the Act.

“Data Protection Acts 1988-2018 & the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)” are designed to protect people’s privacy. The legislation confers rights on individuals in relation to the privacy of their personal data as well as responsibilities on those persons holding and processing such data.

“Performance” means to engage in any type of performance or exhibition in a public place with the reasonable expectation or opportunity of receiving donations including the playing of musical instruments, singing, reciting, dancing, acting, pantomiming, puppeteering, juggling, human statues, balloon modelling, street theatre and any other type of performance or exhibition not specifically listed but which would be similar in character, and the words Performance and to Perform shall be construed accordingly and shall not include the Excluded Activities.

“PPSN” is your personal public service number which is a unique reference number issued by the Client Identity Services Section of the Department of Employment Affairs and Protection. The PPSN is required under the amendment to Section 4 of the Casual Trading Act 1995, The Finance Act 1996 and Section 161 of the Income Tax Act 1967.

“Sell, Selling or Sale” includes agreeing to offer, to sell or displaying for sale or inviting an offer to buy.

“Stall” shall include any wheeled or moveable stall or box, barrow, cart, caravan or other vehicle or both or other stand or conveyance used for casual trading.

“Trading Bay or Space” means each area designated and specified in a licence issued by Laois County Council for the purpose of trading or event trading.

“Vehicle” means and includes every means of conveyance, whether mechanically propelled or not, of persons, market produce or any goods or articles.

Designation of Land as Casual Trading Area

1. Casual Trading shall only be carried on at the locations designated for the purpose in these Bye Laws or at a specified event or events at such other location or locations as may be approved by the Council in a licence issued pursuant to Section 4(1)(a)(iii) of the Act.

Trading Hours

2. Casual trading shall only take place between 10am to 5pm on Friday and Saturday during wintertime, and 10am to 6pm on Friday and Saturday during summertime of each week in Stradbally or any other days and times with prior approval of Roads Department, Laois County Council.

Trading on Fridays will be limited to the Farmers Market. Other products as per Appendix A are permitted on Saturdays.

Casual Trading Bye Laws shall not supersede or take precedence over a condition attaching to a license granted by Laois County Council under Part XVI of the Planning and Development Act 2000 as amended, or the requirements of An Garda Siochana during events such as Electric Picnic and any other festivals.

Event Trading

3. Where event trading has not already been regularised through other application processes for example the use of Public Open Space Application the following shall apply:
 - (a) The council reserves the right to award trading licences to traders for special events, festivals and fairs.
 - (b) Applications for event licences shall be made not less than 15 working days in advance of the date on which trading is to take place.
 - (c) The council reserves the right to allow trading to take place outside the hours specified in Section 3 for certain events.
 - (d) Trading shall be carried out in accordance with specific conditions attached to the event licence and all conditions of such licence shall be strictly adhered to by the licensee.
 - (e) Only goods approved by the council shall be sold by the licensee at these events.

Exemptions

4. Pursuant to Section 2(4) of the Act, casual trading does not include: -

- 9. Smoking will be prohibited in Bye Law areas where food is being prepared or sold.

Parking Restrictions within the Bye Law Area

- 10. (a) A licensed trader shall not park a vehicle in the Casual Trading Area during trading hours unless such vehicle is for the time being in use for the purpose of casual trading and is wholly parked within the area of the casual trading space specified in the Casual Trading Licence.
- c) A licensed trader shall remove such vehicle from the Casual Trading space specified in the Casual Trading area on each day upon which casual trading is permitted by the Casual Trading Licence not later than 30 minutes after the expiration of trading hours.
- d) A licensed trader shall not park a vehicle earlier than one hour from the commencement of trading hours in the Casual Trading Area for the purpose of unloading goods or produce thereon onto the Casual Trading Space specified in the Casual Trading Licence.

- e) A licensed trader shall not park a vehicle for a period exceeding 30 minutes from the commencement of parking in the Casual Trading Area for the purpose of unloading goods or produce there from onto the Casual Trading Space specified in the Casual Trading Licence.
- f) A licensed trader shall not park a vehicle earlier than the expiration of trading hours in the Casual Trading Area for the purpose of loading goods or produce thereon from the Casual Trading Space specified in the Casual Trading Licence.

Bay Operations including Maintenance & Health & Safety Requirements

11. Stalls used must be of safe, anchored and robust construction (Max 3m x 3m) in height from ground level and suitably equipped for the particular service which it proposes to provide. Materials covering stalls must be clean, safe and tightly secured to the frame. The stall shall always be maintained in a safe condition and barriers shall be erected around all potential hazards. The casual trader can only display goods within the boundary of their stall. Therefore, goods shall not obstruct free passage through the marketplace.
12. Trading shall be confined to the allotted bay at the designated Casual Trading Area and no goods shall overhang a stall or be deposited on the ground except in the allotted bay and no stall shall exceed 2.5 metres in height without prior agreement of the Council.
13. The council reserves the right to change and alter the internal layout of the Casual Trading Bays within the Casual Trading Areas at any time.
14. A person carrying on casual trading in the Casual Trading Area shall ensure that the Casual Trading Bay, as specified in the Casual Trading Licence remains unaltered and undamaged as a consequence of their casual trading.
15. No broadcasting or speech from a mechanical amplification system shall take place from any stall or any vehicle and no loud playing of radios or music reproduction appliances shall take place at any stall.
16. Use of generators, used in conjunction with casual trading stalls, are subject to the prior approval of the council. They shall conform to acceptable noise levels (such as 55db(A) by day and 45db(A) by night - where db(A) means decibel level) and a manufacturer's certificate will be required to confirm specification.

17. A person carrying on casual trading in the Casual Trading Area shall keep the casual trading space, specified in the Casual Trading Licence, in a clean and tidy condition and for the purpose shall: -

- (a) cause the stall to be properly cleansed immediately before and after the sale of goods for the day.
- (b) cause the Casual Trading Area and a radius of at least 50 metres to be kept free of litter arising from the casual trading business as approved by licence.
- (c) A suitable receptacle for refuse, agreed with the council, must be provided by the licence holder and must be kept at all times of trading within the trading place. Casual traders shall comply with any requirements of the Waste Management Acts and any Regulations or Bye Laws made there from.
- (d) Litter must not be allowed to accumulate in the vicinity of the trading place during casual trading hours and at the end of trading the trading place must be cleaned up and all refuse removed and shown to be properly disposed of by the licence holder. Each trader shall also clean their trading pitch as often as is necessary or when directed by Graiguecullen/Portarlinton Municipal District, its employees or agent, during the day on which the stall is in use for the sale of goods.
- (e) Traders must comply with the Litter Pollution Act in relation to the erection of signs in the vicinity of the trading site.
- (f) Guidance from the Health Service Executive and/or Government in relation to public health, social distancing, COVID-19 and any other pandemic related matters shall be complied with at the time of being in force and any further regulations that may be made in that regard shall also be complied with and subject to future government guidelines - <https://www.hse.ie>

18. The council shall not be held responsible for any property belonging to any person whatsoever deposited or left in any part of the Casual Trading Area, nor for any loss, damage or injury caused by the negligence of any trader, their agents, employees or customers.

19. The council reserves the right to remove stalls found on the designated Casual Trading Area after trading hours and/or goods or other articles left outside the allotted bay at any time.

Street Performance

20. Street Performance may be permitted in the Casual Trading Area with prior approval of the council with conditions attached.

Authorised Officer

21. The council may appoint an Authorised Officer or Officers for the purposes of managing and controlling the Casual Trading Area.
22. A casual trader shall comply with all lawful requests and direction by an Authorised Officer or by a member of An Garda Síochána.
23. An Authorised Officer appointed by the council or a member of the Garda Síochána may: -
- a) enter, inspect and examine any place where he has reasonable cause to believe that casual trading is being engaged.
 - b) require any person whom he/she has reasonable cause to believe to be engaging in casual trading: -
 - (i) to produce, if it is not being displayed, a casual trading licence authorising such trading and to permit the Officer or member of An Garda Síochána to examine the licence, and
 - (ii) if he/she fails, neglect or refuses to produce such a licence or, in a case in which it is not being displayed, to furnish to the officer his/her name and address and, if he/she is the servant or agent of another person, the name and address of the other person.
 - c) make such examination and inquiry as may be necessary to ascertain whether the provisions of the Act or of these Bye Laws are being complied with,
 - d) require any person whom he/she has reasonable cause to believe to be engaging in casual trading in contravention of the Act to give such information as is in his power to give as to the ownership of any goods being sold in the course of such trading.
24. A person shall not obstruct or interfere with or give false information to an Authorised Officer or member of An Garda Síochána in the performance of functions under these Bye Laws.

Insurance

25. A person carrying on casual trading in the Casual Trading Area shall indemnify the council and The Cosby Estate against all action, claims or demands whatsoever by any person claiming damages for personal injuries, loss or damage caused by any act, neglect or default of such casual trader, servants, or employees in and about the carrying on of such casual trading in the Casual Trading Area and every such casual trader shall be required by the council to have in force at all times an appropriate Public Liability Insurance with an Insurance Company to be approved by the council insuring against the aforesaid risks in a minimum sum of €6,500,000 for any one incident. The interest of the council is to be noted on the face of such policy of insurance and if at any time the said policy is allowed to lapse or is rendered void the council shall be at liberty to revoke the Casual Trading Licence of such person forthwith.

Application Process

26. A person applying to the council for a Casual Trading Licence shall furnish to the council, the information requested in the form prescribed, together with such further information as the council may request for the purposes of the exercise of its powers and functions under the Act and, if a person fails to comply with this Article, the council may refuse to grant the person the licence.
27. Applications for an annual Casual Trading Licences shall be made between 1st November and 30th November each year on the appropriate form addressed to: Administrative Officer, Roads Section, Áras an Chontae, Portlaoise, Co. Laois R32 FP9E or by email to casualtrading@laoiscoco.ie.
- (a) An individual application shall be made for each licence.
 - (b) A tax clearance cert from Revenue Commissioners must be lodged with each completed application form.
 - (c) The council reserve the right to grant or refuse a Casual Trading Licence.
 - (d) Individual trading bays shall be allocated by the council by such methods that it may, at its discretion decide.
 - a. Due recognition will be given to traditional traders in the allocation of Casual Trading Bays and in particular to persons who satisfactorily support their claim to be established traders.
 - b. That allocation process shall not exclude allocation by lot when deemed necessary.

- (e) The allocation of a licence will primarily be based on a supply and demand selection process. However, the allocation process shall not exclude allocation by lot when deemed necessary.
 - (f) A Casual Trader who fails to trade, on one or more days, for four consecutive weeks is liable to have his/her/their licence revoked. The council may, at its discretion, serve notice on the licence holder that his/her/their licence has been revoked for the remainder of the licence period, and arrange to reallocate the bay in question. The holder will be given the opportunity to explain their absence prior to any decision regarding revocation of the licence.
 - (g) Casual trading bays shall not be exchanged without the proper consent of the council in writing.
 - (h) The council or its servants or agents may from day to day, permit any trading bays which had already been allocated to be temporarily used by any other casual trader when not in actual use by the casual trader to whom it was allocated or where it has not been occupied by 11am.
28. The allocation of a trading space by a licence shall not confer upon the Trader any tenancy or right to occupy or transfer the said space.
29. The council may revoke a Casual Trading Licence if it is satisfied that a condition of the licence is being or has been contravened or if the person to whom it was granted is convicted of an offence in relation to the importation, possession or sale of goods committed while he was the holder of a casual trading licence or an offence under the Act.
30. The council, where possible, reserves the right to prohibit casual trading on any trading day, or part thereof, in the event that exceptional circumstances arise which necessitate such prohibition. The council, where possible, will notify any affected licence holders in advance of any such prohibition taking effect.
31. Casual Trading Licences are issued annually and valid for a period of 12 months from January to December each year. Applicants must reapply for a licence on an annual basis no later than 30th November prior to proposed year of trading.

Service of Notices

32. Where a notice in relation to any provision of these Bye Laws is required to be served on or given to a person, it shall be addressed to him or her and shall be served on or given to him or her in one of the following ways:
- (a) where it is addressed by name or delivered to by name of the casual trader;
 - (b) by leaving it at the address or sending it by post by registered letter at which the person ordinarily resides or, to the address most recently received by the council from the casual trader for correspondence purposes or, in a case in which an address for services has been furnished, at that address;
 - (c) where the address at which the casual trader ordinarily resides cannot be ascertained by reasonable inquiry and the notice or copy is so required or authorised to be given or served in respect of any allotted bay, by delivering it to some person over the ages of 16 years, employed, or otherwise engaged in connection with the carrying out of the casual trading to which the notice related, on the allotted bay or by affixing it in a conspicuous place on or near the allotted bay.

For the purposes of this section, a company registered under the Companies Acts, 1963 to 2006, shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office, and every other body corporate and every incorporated body shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its principal office or place of business.

Licence Fees

33. The appropriate annual fee as set out in the Second Schedule of these Bye Laws shall be payable to the council in advance of the issue of a Casual Trading Licence for each Casual Trading Bay to be allocated to a trader in a Casual Trading Area.
34. A fee as set out in the Second Schedule of these Bye Laws shall be payable to the Council in advance with an application for the grant of a Casual Trading Licence in respect of Casual Trading at an event or events specified in a Casual Trading Licence to be issued pursuant to Section 4(i) (a) (iii) of the Act.
35. The fees and charges set out in these Bye Laws shall be reviewed one year after the Bye Law comes into operation and annually thereafter. These fees shall be non-refundable in the event of revocation of a licence.

36. A licence holder may surrender the licence to the council at any time prior to the expiry of the licence period. A person who surrenders a licence may apply to obtain a refund of that portion of the licence fee equivalent to the unexpired term of the licence, subject to a maximum refund of 50% of the total fee. The issuing of a refund is at the discretion of Laois County Council, Roads Department. Where a licence has been surrendered, the Council may issue a new licence for the unexpired term of the surrendered licence.

Penalties

37. A person who contravenes any of the Casual Trading Bye Laws shall be guilty of an offence under Sub-Section (12) of Section 6 of the Act and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €1,250 as specified in Section 14 of the Act.

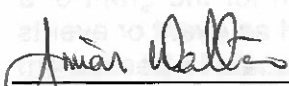

General

38. This schedule may be amended by resolution of the council following a public consultation phase of at least one month incorporating public advertisement and submission of representations.

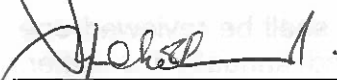

These Bye Laws shall be known as the Stradbally Casual Trading Bye Laws, 2023 and shall come into operation on the 17th day of February 2023.

From this day, the previous Casual Trading Bye Laws Stradbally 2015 are hereby revoked.
