The casual trader can only display goods within the boundary of his/her stall therefore goods shall not obstruct free passage through the market place.
- 16. Trading shall be confined to the Allotted Bay at the designated Casual Trading Area and no goods shall over hang a stall or be deposited on the ground except in the Allotted Bay and no stall shall exceed 2.5 metres in height without prior agreement of the Council.
- 17. The Council reserves the right to change and alter the internal layout of the Casual Trading Bays within the Casual Trading Areas at any time.

18. A person carrying on Casual Trading in the Casual Trading Area shall ensure that the Casual Trading Bay, specified In the Casual Trading Licence remains unaltered and undamaged as a consequence of their Casual Trading.
19. No broadcasting or speech from a mechanical amplification system shall take place from any stall or any vehicle and no loud playing of radios or music reproduction appliances shall take place at any stall.
20. Use of generators, used in conjunction with Casual Trading Stalls, are subject to the prior approval of the Council. They shall conform to acceptable noise levels (i.e. 55db(A) by day and 45db(A) by night - where db(A) means decibel level) and a manufacturer's certificate will be required to confirm specification.
21. A person carrying on Casual Trading in the Casual Trading Area shall keep the Casual Trading space, specified in the Casual Trading Licence, in a clean and tidy condition and for the purpose shall:-
 - (a) cause the stall to be properly cleansed immediately before and after the sale of goods for the day.
 - (b) cause the Casual Trading Area and a radius of at least 50 metres to be kept free of litter arising from the Casual Trading business as approved by licence.
 - (c) A suitable receptacle for refuse, agreed with the Council, must be provided by the licence holder and must be kept at all times of trading within the trading place. Casual Traders shall comply with any requirements of the Waste Management Acts and any Regulations or Bye-laws made there from.
 - (d) Litter must not be allowed to accumulate in the vicinity of the trading place during casual trading hours and at the end of trading the trading place must be cleaned up and all refuse removed and shown to be properly disposed of by the licence holder. Each trader shall also clean their trading pitch as often as is necessary or when directed by Portlaoise Municipal District, its employees or agent, during the day on which the stall is in use for the sale of goods.
 - (e) Traders must comply with the Litter Pollution Act in relation to the erection of signs in the vicinity of the trading site.
22. The Council shall not be held responsible for any property belonging to any person whatsoever deposited or left in any part of the Casual Trading Area, nor for any loss, damage or injury caused by the negligence of any trader, their agents, employees or customers.
23. The Council reserves the right to remove stalls found on the designated Casual Trading Area after trading hours and/or goods or other articles left outside the Allotted Bay at any time.

STREET PERFORMANCE

24. Street Performance may be permitted in the Casual Trading Area with prior approval of the Council. Approved performers must adhere to the following conditions:
- (a) Street Performer shall not obstruct the public's access to and egress from any premises.
 - (b) A Street Performer with instruments, equipment or props shall not block, obstruct or interfere with the free and safe movement of pedestrians.
 - (c) A Street Performer must conduct him/herself in a safe, professional manner and fully cooperate with other street performers, members of the public, market stall holders, persons authorised by the Council and An Garda Síochána.
 - (d) A Street Performer shall not perform outside of market hours, unless taking part in a previously approved Casual Trading Event.
 - (e) A Street Performer who performs in a public place shall be solely responsible for his/her instruments, equipment and props and shall not leave them unattended in a public place and shall remove them from the public place at the end of his/her performance.
 - (f) The sound produced in the immediate vicinity of a Street Performer or Street Performers during a performance shall not exceed 80 decibels.
 - (g) The Council's assessment as to what constitutes Street Performance for the purposes of these Casual Trading Bye-Laws shall be at its sole discretion and shall be final.

AUTHORISED OFFICER

25. The Council may appoint an Authorised Officer or Officers for the purposes of managing and controlling the Casual Trading Area.
26. A Casual Trader shall comply with all lawful requests and direction by an Authorised Officer or by a member of the Garda Síochána.
27. An Authorised Officer appointed by the Council or a member of the Garda Síochána may:-
- a) enter, inspect and examine any place where he has reasonable cause to believe that Casual Trading is being engaged.
 - b) require any person whom he/she has reasonable cause to believe to be engaging in casual trading:-

- (i) to produce, if it is not being displayed, a casual trading licence authorising such trading and to permit the Officer or member of the Garda Síochána to examine the licence, and
 - (ii) if he/she fails, neglect or refuses to produce such a licence or, in a case in which it is not being displayed, to furnish to the officer his/her name and address and, if he/she is the servant or agent of another person, the name and address of the other person.
- c) make such examination and inquiry as may be necessary to ascertain whether the provisions of the Act or of these Bye-Laws are being complied with,
 - d) require any person whom he/she has reasonable cause to believe to be engaging in casual trading in contravention of the Act to give such information as is in his power to give as to the ownership of any goods being sold in the course of such trading.

28. A person shall not obstruct or interfere with, or give false information to an Authorised Officer or member of the Garda Síochána in the performance of functions under these Bye-Laws.

INSURANCES

29. A person carrying on Casual Trading in the Casual Trading Area shall indemnify the Council against all action, claims or demands whatsoever by any person claiming damages for personal injuries, loss or damage caused by any act, neglect or default of such Casual Trader, his servants, or employees in and about the carrying on of such Casual Trading in the Casual Trading Area and every such Casual Trader shall be required by the Council to have in force at all times an appropriate Public Liability Insurance with an Insurance Company to be approved by the Council insuring against the aforesaid risks in a minimum sum of €6,500,000 for any one incident. The interest of the Council is to be noted on the face of such policy of insurance and if at any time the said policy is allowed to lapse or is rendered void the Council shall be at liberty to revoke the Casual Trading Licence of such person forthwith.

APPLICATION PROCESS

30. A person applying to the Council for a Casual Trading Licence shall furnish to the Council, the information requested in the form prescribed, together with such further information as the Council may request for the purposes of the exercise of its powers and functions under the Act and, if a person fails to comply with this Article, the Council may refuse to grant the person the licence.

31. Applications for Casual Trading Licences shall be made on the appropriate form addressed to, The Administrative Officer, Roads Department, Áras an Chontae, Portlaoise, Co. Laois or by email to casualtrading@laoiscoco.ie .
- (a) An individual application shall be made for each licence.
 - (b) A tax clearance cert from Revenue Commissioners must be lodged with each completed application form.
 - (c) The Council reserve the right to grant or refuse a Casual Trading Licence.
 - (d) Individual trading bays shall be allocated by the Council by such methods that it may, at its discretion decide.
 - (i) Due recognition will be given to traditional traders in the allocation of Casual Trading Bays and, in particular to persons who satisfactorily support their claim to be established traders,
 - (ii) That allocation process shall not exclude allocation by lot when deemed necessary.
 - (e) The allocation of a licence will primarily be based on a supply and demand selection process, however, the allocation process shall not exclude allocation by lot when deemed necessary.
 - (f) A Casual Trader who fails to trade, on one or more days, for four consecutive weeks is liable to have his/her licence revoked. The Council may, at its discretion, serve notice on the licence holder that his/her licence has been revoked for the remainder of the licence period, and arrange to reallocate the bay in question. The holder will be given the opportunity to explain their absence prior to any decision regarding revocation of the licence.
 - (g) Trading Bays shall not be exchanged without the proper consent of the Council in writing.
 - (h) The Council or its servants or agents may from day to day, permit any trading bays which had already been allocated to be temporarily used by any other casual trader when not in actual use by the casual trader to whom it was allocated or where it has not been occupied by 11.00 am.
32. The allocation of a trading space by a licence shall not confer upon the Trader any tenancy or right to occupy or transfer the said space.

33. The Council may revoke a Casual Trading Licence if it is satisfied that a condition of the licence is being or has been contravened or if the person to whom it was granted is convicted of an offence in relation to the importation, possession or sale of goods committed while he was the holder of a casual trading licence or an offence under the Act.
34. The Council, where possible, reserves the right to prohibit Casual Trading on any trading day, or part thereof, in the event that exceptional circumstances arise which necessitate such prohibition. The Council, where possible, will notify any affected licence holders in advance of any such prohibition taking effect.
35. Casual Trading Licences are issued annually and valid for a period of 12 months from January to December each year. Applicants must reapply for a licence on an annual basis no later than 31st October prior to proposed year of trading.

SERVICE OF NOTICES

36. Where a notice in relation to any provision of these Bye-Laws is required to be served on or given to a person, it shall be addressed to him or her and shall be served on or given to him or her in one of the following ways: -
 - (a) where it is addressed to him or her by name, by delivering it to him or her;
 - (b) by leaving it at the address or sending it by post by registered letter at which he or she ordinarily resides or, to the address most recently received by the Council from the Casual Trader for correspondence purposes or, in a case in which an address for services has been furnished, at that address;
 - (c) where the address at which he or she ordinarily resides cannot be ascertained by reasonable inquiry and the notice or copy is so required or authorised to be given or served in respect of any Allotted Bay, by delivering it to some person over the ages of 16 years, employed, or otherwise engaged in connection with the carrying out of the Casual Trading to which the notice related, on the allotted bay or by affixing it in a conspicuous place on or near the allotted bay.

For the purposes of this section, a company registered under the Companies Acts, 1963 to 2006, shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office, and every other body corporate and every incorporated body shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its principal office or place of business.

LICENCE FEES

37. The appropriate annual fee as set out in the Second Schedule of these Bye-Laws shall be payable to the Council in advance of the issue of a Casual Trading Licence for each Casual Trading Bay to be allocated to a trader in a Casual Trading Area.
38. A fee as set out in the Second Schedule of these Bye-Laws shall be payable to the Council in advance with an application for the grant of a Casual Trading Licence in respect of Casual Trading at an event or events specified in a Casual Trading Licence to be issued pursuant to Section 4(l) (a) (iii) of the Act.
39. The fees and charges set out in these Bye-Laws shall be reviewed one year after the Bye-Law comes into operation and annually thereafter. These fees shall be non-refundable in the event of revocation of a licence.
40. A licence holder may surrender his/her licence to the Council at any time prior to the expiry of the licence period. A person who surrenders a licence may apply to obtain a refund of that portion of the licence fee equivalent to the unexpired term of the licence, subject to a maximum refund of 50% of the total fee. The issuing of a refund is at the discretion of Portlaoise Municipal District Council. Where a licence has been surrendered, the Council may issue a new licence for the unexpired term of the surrendered licence.

PENALTIES

41. A person who contravenes any of the Bye-Laws shall be guilty of any offence under Section (12) of Section 6 of the Act and shall be liable to such penalties as specified in Section 14 of the Act.

GENERAL

42. This schedule may be amended by resolution of the Council following a public consultation phase of at least one month incorporating public advertisement and submission of representations.

These Bye-Laws shall be known as the Portlaoise Casual Trading Bye-Laws, 2019 and shall come into operation on the 1st day of January 2020.

From this day, the previous Casual Trading Bye Laws 2007, Portlaoise are hereby revoked.

Made and adopted under the Common Seal of Laois County Council on this day of 30th December 2019.
